DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1, 3, and 4 provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 1, 2 of copending Application No. US 2003/0040326. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not yet been patented.

Regarding claim 1, the subject matter claimed in the instant application's claim 1 is fully disclosed in the referenced copending application's claim 1 and would be covered by any patent granted on that copending application since the referenced copending application and the instant application are claiming common subject matter, as follows: "In a cellular telephone ... RF signal".

Regarding claim 3, the subject matter claimed in the instant application's claim 3 is fully disclosed in the referenced copending application's claim 2.

Regarding claim 4, the subject matter claimed in the instant application's claim 4 is fully disclosed in the referenced copending application's claim 13.

Art Unit: 2661

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant would be prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application in the other copending application. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claim 2 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
4. Claims 5-7 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1, 3, and 4 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
